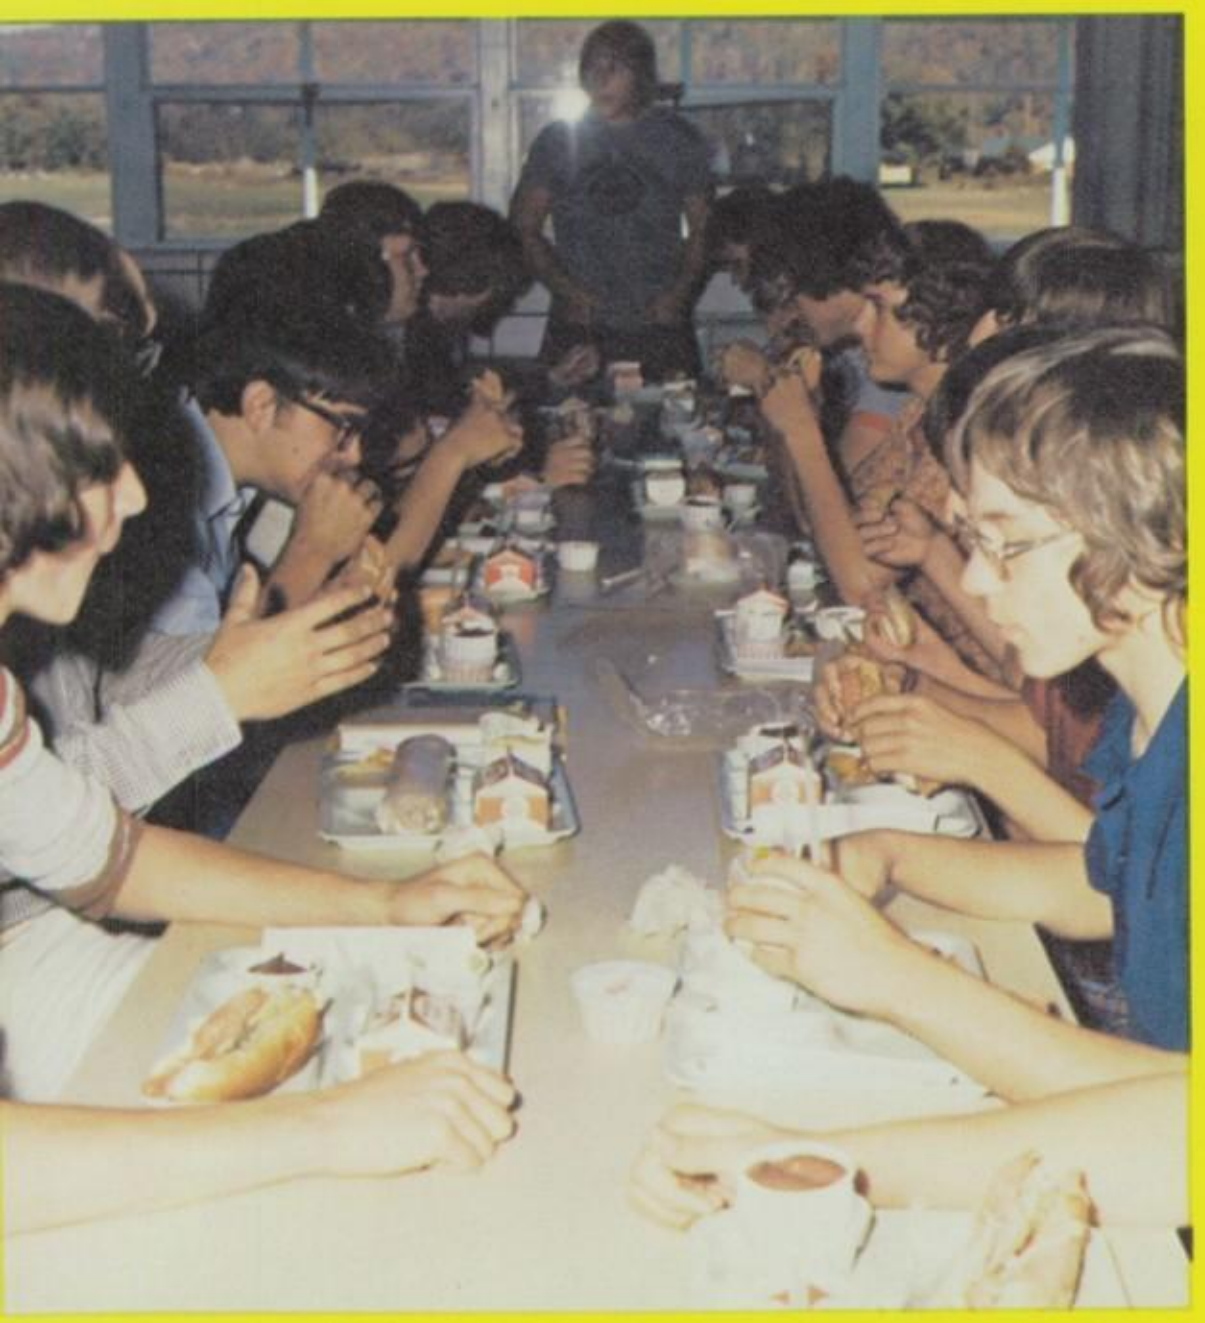
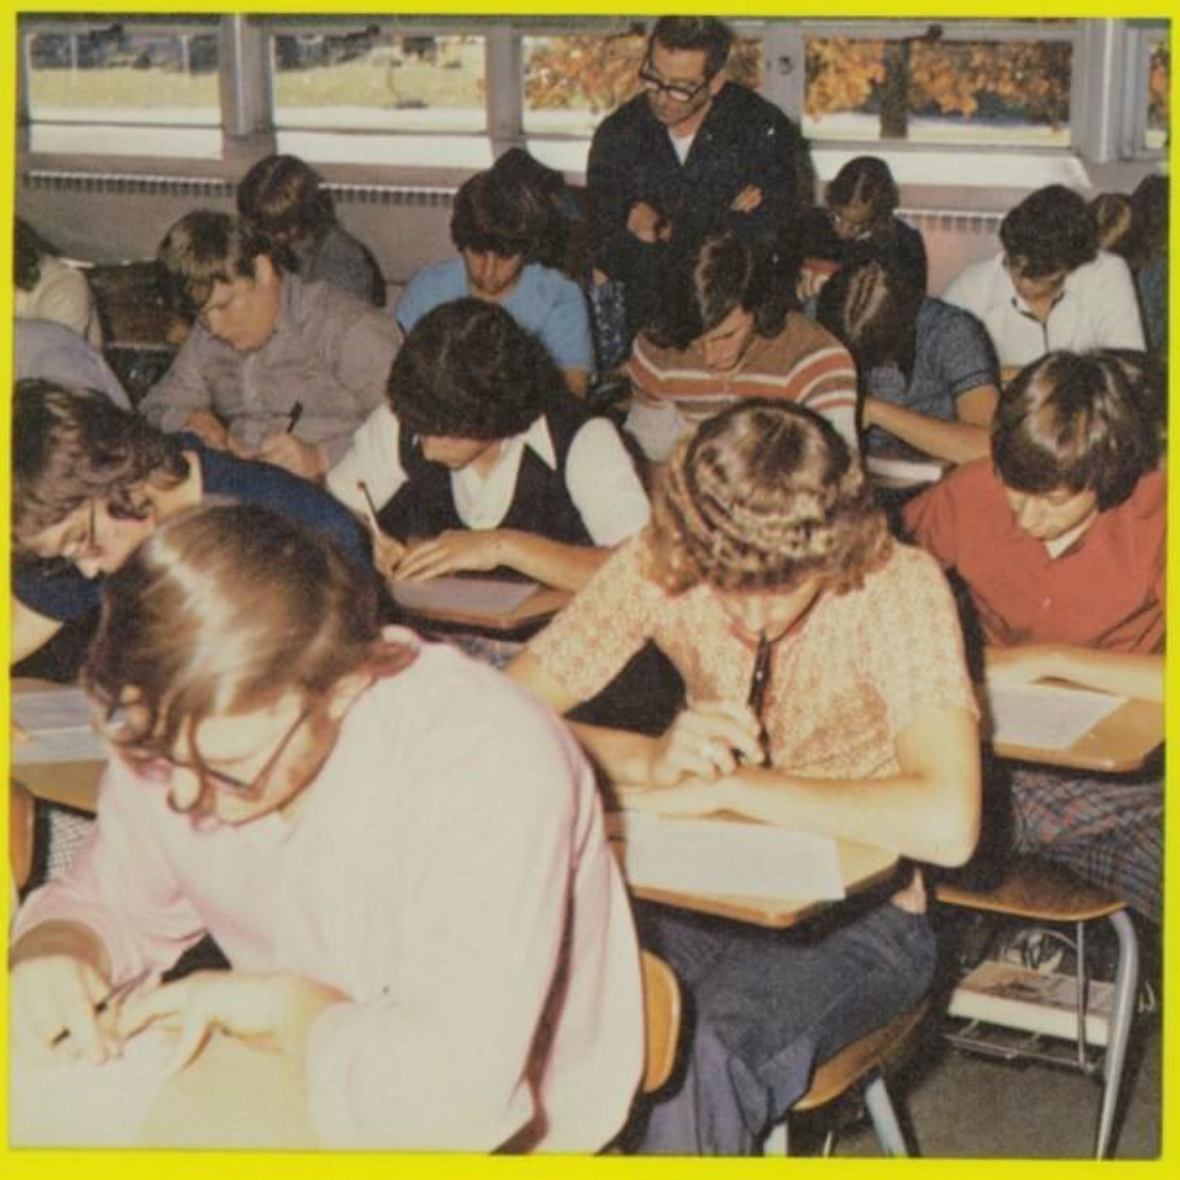
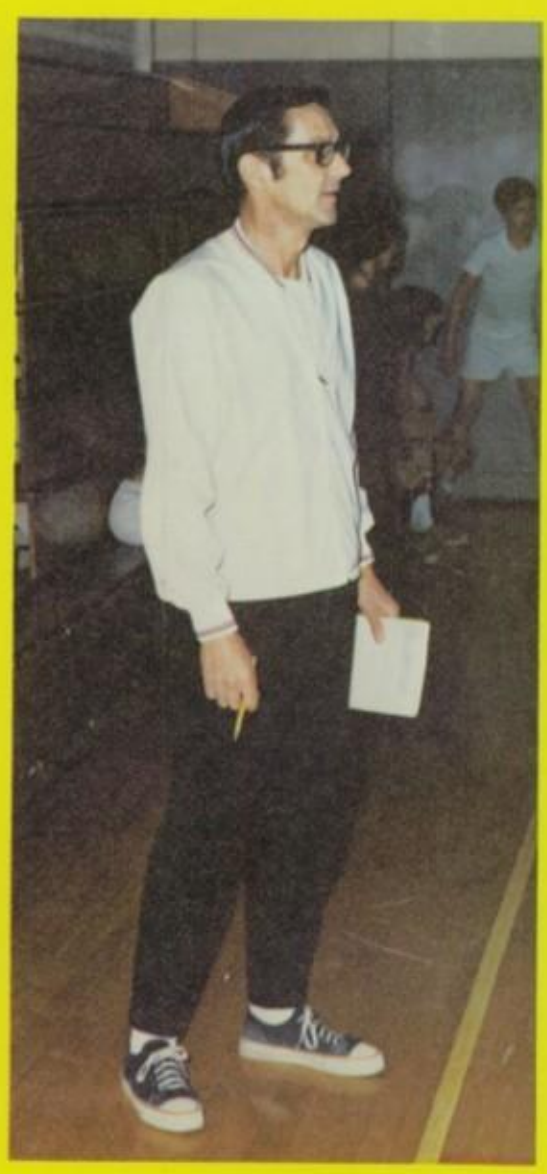
BROCKWA







Dedication

The Senior Class of 1975 decided that instead of dedicating our Dawn to an individual, we would honor the spirit of our school. Brockway schools have educated most of us since we were six. Within its system we've experienced the trauma of first grade and the sense of accomplishment at sixth grade graduation.

Being scared, and getting lost in the enormous high school building began our secondary education, and these are the years we consider most important. Within this building we've learned to work equations, to type at least 25 words a minute and to serve a volleyball. Making friends we'll never forget, learning to dance, and acting in plays has also helped to fill these years.

In addition to the scholastic education, many students have considered athletics, music, and art to be important. Our school offers the students a tremondous variety of organizations. Every interest, from farming and home ec. to business, is represented by a club.

We would also like to recognize our teachers who have educated us and given us guidance. Although we haven't always appreciated you, we know your knowledge is essential to us and we thank you for sharing it.

After twelve years of being under this schools influence, we are now ready to graduate. Brockway Area High School has made up a large part of our lives and it

SENIOR- 1. A person with higher standing or rank. 2. A student in the year preceding graduation from a school of secondary or higher level.

Our last year. No more pencils, books or teachers and no more shoving each other down the hall. Life goes on. We have to plan what we are going to do for the rest of our lives. We can't live on just memories like the magazine sale our Junior year, the Junior and Senior prom, Senior class trip, Senior band trip and graduation. Some of us will get a job, and some will get married and have a family. We will always look back and cherish so many of the greatest moments that happened to us in our High School years. Most of all, we will cherish our Senior year because it is our last year together as the class of "1975"

Class Of '80

SEVENTH GRADE-As seventh graders you start to get the hang of High School. For instance, the little Hyena Walks in the morning, switching from class to class, sharing lockers, and running down the halls, finally, you get to participate with other schools in sports and feel a part of the High School.

All the meetings we had, all the thinking, photographing, writing and typing we did, went into the book you are now reading. This is our creation and we're proud of it. We tried to put the spirit of Brockway High School onto pages, and it wasn't easy, so we hope you appreciate our efforts. To our fellow seniors we hope you will never forget the events, clubs, activities, and people that make up YOUR Dawn of 1975.

A transformation had taken place, the usual organized clutter of the art room had changed into a scene of apparent chaos. However soon an intense concentration was felt as sculptors were seen hard at work. They were creating jack-o-lanterns, which were later displayed in our show case. Also at Halloween their talent brightened our halls when they painted colorful scenes on the windows. We'd like to let them know their creativity has been appreciated.

The Student Council is the only organization in our school in which all the members are elected. They represent the entire student body, and because of this the activities they sponsor vary accordingly. This year's council has been exceptionally active. They've held workdays, shown movies, sponsored Homecoming, Maycrowning and Student Gov. Day. Our school would feel a definite lack without the enthusiasm of the Student Council.

Anyone who drank apple cider brewed by the Future Homemakers would testify that it tasted delicious. These girls also entered a display in the state farm show called, "an Apple a Day." Besides working hard on their domestic activities, they sponsored the Sadie Hawkins. It's unpredictable what these members will be in the future, but at the present they are definite contributors to our school.

The F.F.A. is one of the most industrious clubs in our school. Their activities prove that they are all outdoorsmen. The club has conducted forestry and tractor driving contests and they maintain the Outdoor Lab. In addition to numerous other activities these students always present superior exhibits and projects at the farm shows. It is to their credit that they are constantly adding to their knowledge of agriculture and ecology.

They held a Halloween party for the retarded children in our area, and also a cooked spaghetti dinner for their own enjoyment. There was a reverent silence following the "Ave Maria" and a burst of thunderous applause following Elijah Rock. These two pieces were part of the County Chorus that was held at Brockway. The spontaneous responses were in appreciation of good music. The choir also gave many other performances all equal in quality.

A football game without the music of the Brockway Senior Band would be incomplete. The pregame parade creates anticipation for the competition that will follow and their half-time performances are always well received. The colorguards and majorettes add to the shows with their colorful display of precision. However the greatest asset to their music is their respect for the band director, Mr. Routch.

Homecoming Court

Homecoming is a sentimental time for many seniors and graduates and this year was no exception. For all those involved the day will never be forgotten. Ecstacy showed in the faces of Queen Annette and Attendants Jean and Patty. The celebration included a blazing bonfire, a parade filled with expectation, and a victorious game. The halftime festivities and the crowning at the Homecoming dance that night brought tears to many eyes. This was the beginning of senior year memories.

Snow Ball

The Snow Ball, our Christmas dance, honors Rosey Cox and Denny Veltri as Queen and King. The decorations and everyone's high spirits created an atmosphere that was an excellent beginning for the holidays.

May Crowning

May Crowning elections were held in winter but spring seemed very close for the girls chosen as court. Those honored were Peggy Iddings, Queen, Dolores Fustine and Tina Ward, senior attendants, Antionette Carnesli and Mary Jo Pusl, junior attendants, and Debbie Benson and Diane Mowery, sophomore attendants. The thrill felt as these girls walked down the aisle will always be special to them. The festivities and the May Crowning Dance afterwards will also be treasured.

"Rise and shine and give God your glory," combined with shrieking voices, resounded from the locker room walls. It was the last game of the girls basketball season, and a riotous celebration was being held. It has been a frustrating season, but one these athletes would never forget. The seniors on this team began girls sports at Brockway and deserve recognition for their endurance.

Usually our golf team receives little recognition for their dedication to a difficult sport. However this year Brian Robertson distinguished himself when he golfed in the State Playoffs. These athletes are coached by Mr. Keister, who excels in this game of precision.

The joint effort of wrestlers, coaches, and fans made this year's wrestling matches action packed events. The season record was impressive and only these dedicated athletes can fully appreciate the work that went into the statistics. The desire to excell has made the 1975 wrestling squad one Brockway is very proud of.
